Jill Proud draws on a great breadth and depth of experience in the private and public sectors to deliver high-energy, high-impact training sessions that effectively address the challenges business leaders face today.

WHAT PARTICIPANTS ARE SAYING:

"A subject matter expert, well-spoken and energetic."

"Very engaging, made great use of real-life examples"

"... dynamic ... with a great sense of humour."

"Excellent ... I will take a lot away with me."

As the Vice President of Sales for an international training firm, Jill drove expansion into the financial services industry while managing relationships with several large banking clients. As the Director of Sales and Marketing for another training firm, she expanded a licensee network of associates by 100%, including leading a cross-border expansion into the U.S. market. Jill's diverse background also includes a project with the Canadian International Development Agency in Santiago, Chile, and consulting work throughout North America.

More recently Jill has used her experience and results orientation in one-on-one coaching sessions with senior managers. This has led to a thriving coaching practice, which has contributed to the expertise she leverages in the classroom.

WHERE JILL HAS MASTERED HER SKILLS:

- > First-hand executive experience
- > International companies and organizations
- > Trustee, Hospital Board of Directors
- > Sports coaching

Jill is a high-energy presenter and a thoughtful facilitator. Workshop feedback highlights that Jill's excellent communication skills and approachable style create an instant connection with the audience that enhances learning and inspires participants to move to action.

Helen Miskelly, AVP, MD Financial, describes Jill's impact: "Jill delivers a lively, interactive and informative session. Her extensive knowledge of coaching allowed her to relate meaningful experiences everyone in the audience could appreciate and relate to. Our whole team came away energized and comfortable with a new process for coaching they could implement and see the benefits of immediately."
